Workshop Description

This training is intended to train those adults who rear, care for and teach children age birth to 8. This full day workshop will equip you with the skills and materials needed to conduct violence prevention workshops with adults or to use the concepts and materials in your daily work. Intended participants are childcare supervisors, parent trainers, counselors, social workers and psychologists. Two work settings are emphasized in training: (1) working with families and (2) working in schools.

Training Objectives

- *Discuss the importance of the early years
- *Discuss principles of child development
- *Discuss development of violent behavior
- *Learn to be a change agent in your community
- *Learn to disseminate information and skills on early violence prevention to adults

Speakers

Mary Arredondo, Ph.D. – Psychologist and education consultant
Jackie Davidson, MSW – Clinical social worker and behavior support specialist
Denise Lopez, MC – Child development specialist
President, AzAEYC
